

Free/Reduced Cost Internet: Many Internet Service Providers offer low-income internet programs. These inexpensive internet plans, income based programs, and low-income family plans help reduce the cost of Internet.

Program	Offer/Benefit	Website
Foundation for Rural Housing	Free Internet (if quality)	https://www.wisconsinruralhousing.org/
Federal Communications Commission (Lifeline Program)	$9.25 discount on internet service (participating ISPs*)	https://www.fcc.gov/consumers/guides/lifeline-support-affordable-communications?kbid=118342&amp;utm_source=highspeedinternet.com&amp;utm_medium=affiliate
Xfinity Internet Essentials Program	$9.95/mo. up to 15Mbps†	https://internetessentials.com/?kbid=118342&amp;utm_source=highspeedinternet.com&amp;utm_medium=affiliate
Spectrum Internet Assist	Free During Coronavirus School Shut Down  Normally $14.99/mo. for up to 30 Mbps‡	https://www.channel3000.com/charter-offering-free-access-to-spectrum-wi-fi-for-students-learning-remotely/
AT&amp;T's Access Program	$10.00/mo. for up to 10Mbps	https://digitalyou.att.com/low-cost-internet/?kbid=118342&amp;utm_source=highspeedinternet.com&amp;utm_medium=affiliate

Data effective 2/28/2020. Plans, benefits, and qualifications subject to change.

*To qualify for Lifeline, you must either make less than 135% of the federal poverty guideline, or someone in your household must participate in Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, Supplemental Security Income, Veterans Pension and Survivor Benefits, Federal Public Housing Assistance, Medicaid, or Tribal Programs for Native Americans.

†Per month + tax. Visit internetessentials.com for full eligibility details

‡To qualify for Spectrum Internet Assist, one member of the household must receive benefits from the National School Lunch Program (NSLP), Community Eligibility Provision of the NSLP, or Supplemental Security Income (≥ age 65 only).

|| Please see att.com/access for full eligibility requirements.

CoVid-19 Cell Phone Carrier Student Assistance: In response to the Coronavirus outbreak many cell providers are giving free unlimited data access or are waiving any overage charges for the time being. Check with your cell phone provider to find out if/what offers they may be providing to offer assistance to students and families.

- T-Mobile: <https://www.droid-life.com/2020/03/13/t-mobile-gives-everyone-unlimited-data-more-hotspot-in-response-to-coronavirus/>
- AT&T: <https://www.pcmag.com/news/att-lifts-data-caps-on-broadband-during-coronavirus-outbreak>